Crl. Rev. No. 897/01
(Old No. 1585/1995)

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

None appear for the revisionist. Heard Sri H.C.Pandey learned A.G.A and perused the record.

The petition was not admitted when the same was filed before the Allahabad High Court. The revision under section 397/401 of the Code of Criminal Procedure whereby the propriety of the sentence awarded by the learned J.M., Haldwani in criminal case no. 2736/1993 State Vs. Harish Chandra Chausali under section 324 IPC, P.S. Haldwani was challenged. The accused in that case was sentenced to pay fine of Rs. 1000/- under section 324 IPC. The accused had confessed his guilt and considering this the sentence to fine was just and proper. There being no merit in this revision, the same cannot therefore be admitted and is dismissed as such. Consign.

(Irshad Hussain, J.)

Dated 11.5.2004
Rawat